

Learning iDVD On Your Own

To learn iDVD on your own, there are some excellent, comprehensive resources on the Apple web site. If you are new to iDVD and need to learn the software on your own, watching these online tutorials are highly recommended.

1. Go to the iDVD HD in the Learning Center:

http://www.mac.com/1/learningcenter/Modules/idCreateDvd_index.html

The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Learning Center" with the URL <http://www.mac.com/1/learningcenter/index-sub.html?go=ilife+moviesDVI>. The browser's address bar includes a search engine icon and the text "Google". The page features a navigation menu with links for "Store", "iPod + iTunes", ".Mac", "QuickTime", "Support", and "Mac OS X". Below the navigation is a header with the "Learning Center" logo and the slogan "Get More Out of Your Mac". The main content area is titled "iDVD 5" and includes a "Main Menu" link. A grid of video thumbnails is displayed, with titles such as "Little Ralf", "Now Playing", "Baby Choices", "Summer Vacation", "Our Best", "My Baby", "My Home", "My Studio", "Designer Portfolio", and "Summer Vacation". To the right of the thumbnails, there are sections for "Tutorials" (with a link to "Creating a DVD Disc with iDVD"), "Text" (with links to "Making DVD copies" and "iDVD 5 Overview"), and "Videos" (with a link to "Getting 'In the Zone' with iDVD Drop Zones"). A large, faint icon of a DVD disc and a computer monitor is visible in the lower right corner of the page. At the bottom, a footer contains the text "Learning Center tips | Learning Center practice files | Provide feedback".